

Switch and Data

Provider of CHOICE.™

NANOG 30 IXP Update

Christopher Quesada

Background

- PAIX acquired by Switch and Data - March 2003
- Expansion of Engineering resources
 - Focus on continued growth of Engineering department
- Profitable corporation
 - EBITDA positive performance since November 2001
 - Cash flow positive since May 2003

Facts and Figures

- 12th anniversary of first interconnection at Palo Alto Internet Exchange
 - Currently over 130 unique peers in Palo Alto alone
 - Growing access to Bay Area MetroPAIX fabric from other locations
- 10 Switch and Data Exchanges in North America
 - Atlanta, Dallas, Los Angeles, New York, Northern Virginia (Vienna), Palo Alto, Philadelphia, San Jose, San Francisco, & Seattle
- Ethernet-based switching services
 - 10Mb, 100Mb, 333Mb, 1000Mb ports
 - MetroPAIX
 - IPv6 at all exchanges

Exchange Partnerships

- Extended metro interconnections
 - Currently Operational:
 - Seattle: SIX and Pacific Wave
 - Los Angeles: LAAP
 - Atlanta: SoX/SURA
- More in process

Future

- New MetroPAIX Interconnections
 - New York City
 - DC Metro
 - Atlanta
- 10Gig-E development
- More in process

More Information

- For more information, go to www.switchanddata.com
- Or, Contact: Christopher A. Quesada
cquesada@switchanddata.com
Office: 703.790.3188
Cell: 703.967.7888